About the Photographer
Bruno Wägli

Bruno Wägli, Ph.D in contemporary history, enjoys nothing more than to go on extended photo trips to remote areas. He fell in love with southern Africa and its abundant wildlife: Namibia, Botswana, Uganda, Rwanda, Zimbabwe, and above all, Zambia are countries he likes to rediscover time and time again. Other favorite places of his include the northern and southern polar regions (Antarctica, Greenland, Spitzbergen), Alaska, and the Yukon. Bruno also keeps chasing new motifs in his home country of Switzerland, where the natural beauty of the Alps and of the many lakes and rivers never cease to excite him.
